

Contrasting Culture:
Congolese/Belgian (European)
&
The Roles of Women in Heart of Darkness

Andrew Leemann, Julia Bland,
Haruka Kashiwai and Jonah Brodeur

Women of Heart of Darkness

“wild and gorgeous apparition of a woman”(167)

``The wilderness...it had taken him, loved him, embraced him, got into his veins, consumed his flesh, and sealed its soul to its own by the inconceivable ceremonies of some devilish initiation. It was his spoiled and pampered favourite."(153)

“I Have Survived”

“ They live in a world of their own, and there had never been anything like it, and never can be.” (113)

Citations:

- Max CDN, Visualize Us , May 8 2007. Web.
- Advamag Inc. , Fashion Encyclopedia, 2013. Web.
- Conan Doyle, Arthur. The Crime of the Congo. London, Hutchinson & Co, 1909. Book.
- Ultimate History Project, 2008. Web.
- Steven Kreis, The History Guide , April 13 2013
- British Museum, Room 47, 2013. Web.
- Mukenge, Tshilemalema. (2002) Culture and Customs of the Congo, Greenwood Press
- Conrad, Joseph and Cedrick Watts. Heart of Darkness. Oxford 2008. Print.
- Paul Cunningham, Public Policy Debate in the Classroom , Brown University, 2009.

Questions

