

Scoring table

Name _____

Item	0/4 – incomplete or insufficiently completed	Effort proves no more than a limited knowledge	1/4 – perfunctory effort. Task completed, but missing significant detail(s). Basic information not addressed.	2/4 meets expectations. Relevant observations adequately supported. Attention to detail is lacking in some areas, but overall	3/4 good effort. Relevant observations adequately supported. Attention to detail is lacking in some small areas.	4/4 Strong work. Original efforts, Meticulous attention to detail, meaningful examples skillfully used
PUT A CHECK MARK NEXT TO COMPLETED TASKS.
What characters do
The first two chapters
Change in a story
*What's the back story?
*Where do we go from here?
^When did what happen?
^Map the story
Total						/20
FIFTEEN Journal Entries						/5
TOTAL						/25
Recorded as a mark out of 15 for your unit. Total unit marks 25.

ONE of these two

ONE of these two

LEARNING TARGETS:
 Students will read for the purpose of literary analysis, exploring features in novels and the functions they serve to the storytelling experience.